Plaintiff's Bill of Costs and Fees

1. To the honorable US District Court:
2. The Plaintiff assesses the following costs and fees related to the motions to compel filed in this case,
3. The Plaintiff is seeking reimbursement of costs, fees, and mileage relating to each of the filed motions to compel and contempt documents 46, 57, 75, and 93.
4. Each of these motions were granted at least in part, and resulted in court orders directing the defendants to answer the Plaintiff's questions and produce documents.

Reimbursement of subpoena fees

5. The Plaintiff incurred subpoena fees of $150 and $900 as shown by Exhibits A and B. The first subpoena was to Inteliquent a wholesale phone provider, which then identified Magna 5 Global as the actual carrier of the phone records. Magna 5 charged $900 for research and hours to produce the phone records as well to the Plaintiff. In total, this cost the Plaintiff $1050.

Reimbursement of Mileage

6. The Plaintiff is seeking reimbursement for mileage incurred for the 3 hearings from Plano Texas to Sherman Texas. The distance is approximately 46 miles each way or 92 miles round trip. The Federal mileage rate is $54.5 cents per mile or a round trip cost of $50.14 per trip or $200.56 total.

7. The Plaintiff also incurred mileage from 14th Street and Shiloh in Plano Texas to the clerk's office at 7940 Preston Road, Plano, Texas, which is about 21 miles each way or 42 miles round trip, which is $22.89 per round trip or $91.56 total.

Reimbursement of time

8. The Plaintiff is seeking $100 per hour for his time spent driving and preparing the various motions filed.
9. The Plaintiff is seeking recovery of 4 hours for each motion and 2 hours for the reply filed.
10. At $100 per hour, that is $1600 for the motions to compel filed and $200 for the reply motion filed.
11. Additionally, the Plaintiff spent time driving back and forth to the court for the hearings and motions. Each trip to Sherman took about 50 minutes, and accounting for the time spent at the hearing, the Plaintiff spent roughly 2 hours round trip for each of the 3 hearings. This is $600 in total for the 3 hearings

Conclusion

12. In total, the Plaintiff is seeking the recovery of $3742.12 in costs, fees, and time incurred related to the discovery motions in this case.
